“You can tell what’s informing a society by what the tallest building is. When you approach a medieval town, the cathedral is the tallest thing in the place. When you approach an eighteenth-century town, it is the political palace that’s the tallest thing in the place. And when you approach a modern city, the tallest places are the office buildings, the center of economic life.”<sup>1</sup>

left: Trinity Church (NYC) was the tallest building in the United States from its completion in 1846 until 1869. Nowadays the gothic revival church is dwarfed by the buildings of Wall Street and its surrounds.

Burning Too

*Anytime but now
Anywhere but here
Anyone but me
I've got to think about my own life*

*We are consumed by society
We are obsessed with variety
We are all filled with anxiety
That this world will not survive*

*We gotta put it out
The sky is burning
We gotta put it out
The water's burning
We gotta put it out
The earth is burning*

*Outrage
But then they say...*

*Anytime but now
Anywhere but here
Anyone but me
I've got to think about my own life*

*The world is not our facility
We have a responsibility
To use all of our abilities
To keep this place alive*

*Right here
Right now
Do it. Now. Do it.*
